Dear Parishioners,

Each year, the Archdiocese of New Orleans recognizes outstanding service across the Archdiocese with the St. Louis Award. This award is given to two selected parishioners that have demonstrated humble, faithful and consistent service to each parish. Nominations are submitted and the final decision is made by the pastor of the parish. These parishioners attend a ceremony at St. Louis Cathedral and receive a special recognition by the Archbishop. I must admit, the process is not an easy one because this parish is blessed with so many parishioners that have a servant's heart.

*On Sunday, May 7th at 3pm at St. Joseph Church, Archbishop Aymond will recognize two of our parishioners that have been incredibly faithful and humble in their service to God and His Church. They are Mr. Dave Caruso and Mrs. Melanie Sawaya

Melanie is married to David. They have 2 children: Claire and David and 6 grandchildren: Jorge, Madeliene, Jeremy, Sean, Sara and David III. She has been very active with our funeral Ministry, meeting with grieving families to prepare them for the funeral service and assisting with the families at the Funeral Mass. Melanie does this with great compassion, sensitivity and strength. She is an Extraordinary Minister to the homebound. Melanie is the president of the Legion of Mary. She's been part of the team doing house to house census and evangelization in our parish. She also teaches 3rd grade in CCD.

Dave Carusso is married to his wife Gina. Dave has been an extraordinary Usher. He comes for 4pm Mass and supervises in other masses during the weekend. Dave has been involved in the Tomato Festival Committee. He belongs to the Knight of Columbus Jansen Council. His humble and consistent dedication to these ministries brings Jesus to many hearts as they seek the Lord's comfort and guidance in God's house of prayer. As I said, this parish is so blessed with people of golden hearts so there is a long list of faithful servants to be recognized in the years to come. Let's celebrate what God has done in Dave and Melanie.

On April 26th, 5:30pm at St. Rita Parish, the Serra Club Organization sponsored a meal and awarding ceremony for deserving Altar servers of each parish across the archdiocese. Here at Prompt Succor, the Altar Server of the Year Award was given to Apollonia Espiritu, daughter of Israel and Cindy Espiritu. Apollonia has 3 siblings: Acell, Alyza and Amiel and niece Isabella. She graduated from OLPS with honors and she now attends Classique Academy School. Apollonia has shown over the years zeal for serving at Mass and other liturgical services in and outside Prompt Succor Parish. She also serves as an altar server for the Filipino Community and masses at St. David Parish. Thank you Nia for your dedication and service.

It's the weekend of our Tomato Festival! I wish everyone a fun and great time for all our families.

Know that I pray for you daily.

*Your servant in Christ,
Fr. Marlon*

The prayer list will run for two weeks only. If you would like to add your beloved to the list or keep them on past the two weeks, please call the rectory or drop the intention in the collection basket.
