Dear Friends,

This weekend our 10th grade students preparing for the sacrament of Confirmation are on a weekend retreat. Please pray for their conversion and deepening of their faith and commitment to God and His church. Also the following weekend on Feb. 4, the second graders from the school and religion program will be celebrating their First Reconciliation. Please pray for them and their families that they will continue to grow in knowledge and living out the faith. May they be faithful to attending mass and participating in parish community activities. God bless all these young people to be a sign of his love and salvation in the world.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Lance Campo

The Chosen Remnant

Zephaniah is one of the least-known of the Old Testament prophets. He speaks in today's first reading of impending judgment. But the Lord will leave a "remnant" in Israel. This image of a remnant, or remainder, was to become vital to both Judaism and Christianity.

Paul's letter to Corinth makes obvious his deep concern for the Christians there. They are too self-confident, he says, too sure of themselves. He admonishes them to remember that Christ has given them all they have.

Today's Gospel comprises the opening of Jesus' "Great Sermon." As God gave Moses the law on Sinai, so now Jesus gathers his disciples on a hillside to teach them the new law. Each of these Beatitudes contrasts the humiliation of the present with the glory of the future: poverty vs. the riches of God's kingdom, hunger for holiness vs. fulfillment in the Spirit, persecution vs. the reign of God. Jesus is here speaking to God's chosen "remnant."

Eucharistic Minister Workshop

Our Lady of Prompt Succor Church will be hosting an Eucharistic Minister Workshop on Saturday, March 11, 2017. If you are interested in being an Eucharistic Minister please call the rectory, 504-271-3441 to register for this workshop. It is from 9am until 1pm.

Mass Intentions

We recently received a letter from the archdiocese regarding mass intentions. We have to have one mass a weekend solely for the parishioners of our parish. We can have only two masses a weekend with multiple intentions. Since the two masses that have the most intentions are 4pm Saturday and 10:30am Sunday, those will be the two masses for multiple intentions. So at the remaining mass, it will alternate with the all parishioners and one intention. We do have multiple intentions booked through out the year already so they will stay on the books but from here on out we will be following these guidelines. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call me, 504-271-3441, Angele Chaplain.

All Denominational Women's Retreat

March 10-12, 2017

This event is open to women of all denominations and is focused on strengthening your relationship with Jesus. JoAnn is a true worship leader, called by God, whose gifts of music, singing, and speaking bridge the gaps between ages, genders, cultures and economic and social differences. The cost is $150 for commuter, double shared room $250, or single private room $300. Please join us for this event which will be held March 10-12, 2017 at Rosaryville Spirit Life Center.

Dr. Forbes, a dynamic worship leader and Bible teacher, shares her faith with women across the US in conferences and retreats. She and her husband Rick live in Hessmer, LA. They have 2 grown children and 4 granddaughters.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Until very recent decades "Holy Thursday" and "Good Friday" were centered on personal pious devotions, not public liturgy. In urban America, at least in cities with a significant Catholic population, Holy Thursday was about veneration of the Blessed Sacrament. People were encouraged to walk to seven churches for a "visit" to each parish's repository, a kind of temporary tabernacle on a side altar, closer in proximity to the faithful than the usual tabernacle on the distant high altar. On Good Friday, the most popular form of devotion was the Stations of the Cross, or a three-hour program of word and preaching beginning at noon.

The Holy Thursday seven-church hike was a way of participating in a custom of the city of Rome. Traditionally, each day in Lent was assigned to a particular parish church or basilica in the city. Each week of Lent thus had seven churches, and pious people tried to get to each one of them. The pilgrimage was a symbol of unity and also the journey of faith. Originally, the pope would go to each place for a liturgy, but political strife removed the pope from Rome in 1305. With the papacy relocated in France, the custom ceased until Pope Leo XIII expressed interest in restoring it in 1900, and Blessed John XXIII fully restored the custom in 1959. By the time Pope Leo began to revive the custom, many American cities had enough parishes and monasteries that the faithful could vicariously participate in the revived tradition of stational liturgies by a very long walk!—Rev.
